

Polimex –Mostostal

2009-06-01

Polimex –Mostostal is a leader in the Polish engineering-construction market on which it operates as a general contractor.

The company offers a unique combination of services and production for the following industries:

- crude oil, gas and chemical
- power generation
- environment protection
- industrial and general construction
- road and railway construction

The company is the indisputable leader in the basic industrial production of steel products as well as modern corrosion-resistant protection systems.